

Cardinal's Visit postponed

Unfortunately, His Eminence Cardinal Cormac Murphy O'Connor was unable to visit the College on 20th May, owing to ill health and the need to rest prior to the enthronement of his successor Archbishop Vincent Nichols, as Archbishop of Westminster, the following day.

The Cardinal rang the Headmaster to express his regret at being unable to join our 75th Anniversary celebrations, but expressed the hope that he would be invited to visit the College in the future. Mr. Duggan assured him of the prayers and best wishes of the entire College community.
